- Labour law counselling for corporations
- Financial activities
- Corporations and Joint Ventures
- General counselling for corporations
- Insurance and National and international transport
- Economic criminal law
- Customs criminal law
- Mining law

There is plenty of work to be done here and it will be challenging. You will be guided at the beginning and then given research to do before presenting your own opinions or point of view. It will include paper and administrative work as well.

You'll work as part of a team but you'll also do some independent work on research. Your supervisor has excellent English and everyone in the firm speaks English to intermediate level.

You'll work 4 hours a day from 9am - 1pm, Monday to Friday and you'll have your weekends free for sightseeing, playing and relaxing.

The only stipulated requirements are that this law firm is looking for "kind and patient people who have some previous knowledge of law".

You should have an intermediate level of Spanish to do this placement. If you'd like to learn Spanish or improve your existing language level, Travellers also runs Spanish courses in Mendoza and highly recommends combining a language project into your placement for a more integrated experience in Argentina. Speak to us for details.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation will be arranged for you with a local host family, allowing you to have a better insight into Argentina and become integrated into life in the region of Mendoza.

Facilities in host families do vary but you will have the opportunity to express your preferences regarding the type of family that you stay with (for example, a family with/without children, pets etc.).

You will be provided breakfast and for dinner you will usually share a typical Argentinean meal with your family.

THINGS TO DO IN ARGENTINA

Located in the foothills of the Andes Mountains, Mendoza and its surrounding countryside is a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts. This beautiful town is next to some of the world's best skiing and in the summer months visitors enjoy mountain biking, rafting and hiking.

Things to Do in Malargue

“Cabaña Las Brujas” (Witches Cavern) – These spectacular caves are situated roughly 70km outside the town. Generated by sea level change, the underground water has carved what seems like galleries, consisting of amazing rock formations including stalactites and stalagmites. After travelling through a network of tunnels and caves you come to what locals call the Virgen Gallery and Flores Gallery. These are vast open spaces carved by thousands of years of water erosion, creating curious rock formations and ceilings that resemble that of churches. Down there a particular “fauna” exists, adapted to living with out sunlight and little food. All these characteristics make the cavern a magical experience and a must see for all visiting tourists.

“Payunia” – A volcanic range consisting of 800 volcanoes: one of the largest ranges in the world! Over thousands of years of volcanic explosions, wide spread lava flow and originate basaltic formations a very unique and alien like landscape has been created. The vast open scenery gives this place a special feel and it has become an incredibly popular attraction for tourists. Guided tours take you to the edge of volcano craters, show old eruptions and lava rivers and many different land forms and rock types.

“Llancanelo Lagoon” - This totally virgin and natural environment is situated roughly 75 km outside the town. This amazing spectacle has recently been incorporated to the Ramsar Convention as one the greatest natural humid places in the world and is home to some 155 species of migratory birds. A truly beautiful place to visit.

“Pincheira Castles” – Due to natural erosion, mainly Glaciers, an incredible monument has been carved out of the ground that has a strange likeness to man-made structures. In fact the monument resembles a large castle, complete with towers (cones) made out of sediment. The river Malargue passes close, moat like, and only a few meters away the “Pincheria Spring”. This area was a refuge for the “caudillo” (outcast) Pincheira at the end of last century, and many remains of Indian ceramics, arrow heads and other ancient artifacts can be found.

Los Mollos and Valle Hermos” – This amazing location is roughly 45 km outside the town. These thermals were part of the first attraction to Malargues ski tourist industry. The site consists of a hotel across three buildings. The oldest building contains two therapeutic varieties of thermal baths, Sulphur and Iron. In addition to this the resort offer a number of adventure tourism activities, including mountaineering, horse-back rides, trekking, rafting and trips to Valle Hemoso and to la Niña Encantada that run all year round. Also about 95 km form Malargue a valley exists, formed by the crossing of two rivers: The Cobre and the Tordillo. Here many activities such as fishing, walking or spotting the “icticola fauna” help pass time away at this beautiful place.

"I'm having a really wonderful time! I feel that I'm independent and free whilst still having a safety net to fall back on if anything goes wrong. It's very nice to know that there are also people from the company out here to help if there are any problems. I thought 1 month would be more than enough time but as soon as I arrived I realised I wanted to stay so much longer!" Zahra Al-Nugaidi
